1. On 2 Nov 53 Mao Tse-tung left Peiping for a town in southeast China, where secret negotiations with India representatives are taking place. The negotiations are with regard to China's offer to join an independent bloc of Asiatic states, as proposed by Nehru, and to conclude a mutual assistance treaty with India as a report to American military arrangements with Pakistan.
2. Other subjects discussed were the obtaining of Indian help for China's entry into the UN and the conditions of obtaining final settlements in Korea and Indochina.
3. Soviet Ambassador Kuznetzov is being kept informed of the negotiations.
